Refunds

Please see our refund policy in our student handbook and as a separate document on this website

Cooling off period

Students have rights as a consumer under Australia's Consumer Protection Laws including a 2 day cooling off period from enrolment.

Consumer Protection and Guarantee

If Australian Academy of Beauty Dermal and Laser cancels or ceases to provide planned training, Australian Academy of Beauty Dermal and Laser must issue a full refund for any services not yet provided. The basis for determining "services not yet provided" is to be based on the units of competency completed by the student and which can be issued in a statement of attainment at the time the service is ceased.

Students' undertaking a vocational education and training course are protected under Australian Consumer Law and under State and Territory consumer protection laws. These protections include areas such as unfair contract terms, the consumer guarantees, to statutory a cooling-off period, and unscrupulous sales practices. More information about consumer rights can be accessed from the Australian Consumer Law website which includes a range of helpful guides relating to specific areas of protection. Please visit the following site for more information: Australian Consumer Law.

Students enrolled under through the Apprenticeship and traineeship program can also contact the NSW Department of education relating to consumer protection matters at
